LEEDON LEGEND

Congratulations!
Josh in Galaxy

for his happy, kind attitude and for always showing positive values!

Reminders – thank you!

Please ensure that your child/ren:

- Don't bring items from home, there is a chance they will get lost or broken and this causes upset
- Brings only FRUIT for their morning snacks, we are a healthy school
- Has the correct PE uniform on
- Doesn't wear jewellery at school. It can be lost or damaged and some items can harm the children during their play

Congratulations to Mr Silvester who has welcomed a new baby girl to his family!

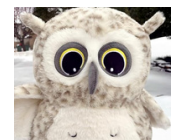

Mr Silvester will be back at school after half-term.

Whole school attendance: 93.1%

Congratulations to Earth
Class who have the highest attendance at 98%

Leedon News

The children and staff have had another busy week at Leedon. Children enjoyed the Jungle Book performance and it was great to see everyone dressed in their 'happy clothes' - it was a great excuse to be comfy and cosy all day!

It was lovely to see parents at the 'Meet Leedon Leaders' meeting this week. I will be emailing a letter next week which outlines the information shared and future plans for Leedon.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Can you help?

We are still looking for volunteers who can commit some time each week to support learning and hear children read. If you think this is something you would like to do please speak to Mrs Cole at the office.
