Today's Literacy Activity

Tomorrow will mark 75 years since WWII fighting came to an end in Europe. Although fighting carried on in other parts of the world, this was a huge celebration and many street parties were held.

Your task is to pretend you are a news reporter from 75 years ago. You can either...

Write a newspaper report on VE day and the street party you attended.

or...

Create and record your own radio broadcast on VE day telling your listeners about the street party you attended.

You will need to find out some important information about VE day to include in your report. How are you going to bring the excitement of the street party to life?
