Today's Literacy Activity

Acrostic Poem

Over the years, hundreds of poems have been written about storms at sea.

Over the next couple of weeks, we are going to look at a few different types of poems and have a go at writing a few ourselves.

Read through the Acrostic Poem PowerPoint File on the website. it can be found in Monday's star on the Literacy page.

We would like you to write an acrostic poem about a storm at sea.

You can either use the simple template on the website or create your own, more detailed one, with your own title e.g. STORMS AT SEA or STORM APPROACHING

Remember to try and use

-alliteration e.g. whirling wind

-similes e.g. lightening flashing as brightly as a torch in your poem.
