

Our Learning Keys

Relationships; Respecting Ourselves and Others.

PSHE

Year 4

Autumn 3 of 3

Questions

- How do we recognise the differences between people such as gender, race, faith etc?
- What do different people have in common e.g. shared values, likes and dislikes, aspirations?
- Why is it so important to respect the differences and similarities between people?
- What vocabulary can we use to sensitively discuss differences and value and include everyone?

Images

Links

Vocabulary

Gender

Faith

Religion

Race

Ethnicity

Commonality

Differences

Values

Beliefs

Aspirations

Sensitivity

Respect

Offend

Offence

Facts

- As we are all individuals, we have differences; some of these are to do with our race, ethnicity, religion, gender, our abilities and disabilities etc.
- It is essential that we know how to talk about differences using the correct vocabulary so that we don't offend or upset others without meaning to. Our identity is very precious to us.
- Sometimes we may not seem to have much in common with another person but when we look closer, we have lots of similarities; we mustn't judge a book by its cover.

Doors this will open...

Previously...

Relationships: Safe Relationships

: Relationships: Respecting
Ourselves and Others

Next...

Living in the Wider World: Belonging to a Community