

Dyslexia Key Facts

Around three children in every class are dyslexic.

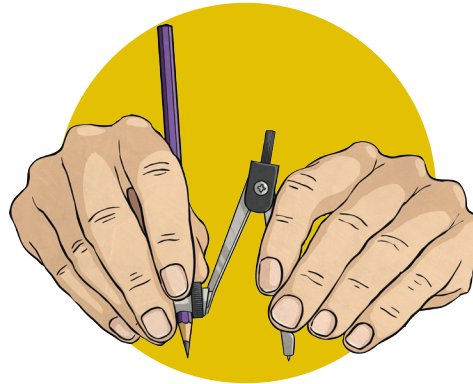

One in five year 6 pupils transfer from primary to secondary school with below expected levels in literacy.

10% of the population are dyslexic.

75% of people with dyslexia have above average skills in planning, making and game playing.

84% of people with dyslexia have above average imagining skills such as creating a new idea or giving ideas a new twist.

71% of people with dyslexia have above average communication skills such as giving clear explanations to others and creating vivid stories or pictures.