What's in Fergus's treasure box?

Read the poem Fergus has written

My treasure box

In my treasure box I keep:

A dried starfish washed up on the beach.

A pearly pink conch shell

An emerald wing feather from Pebbles the Parrot.

Six golden coins.

A mermaid's purse.

Blackbeard's ruby ring.

Eight pirate sweets.

Now you've read the poem, can you solve my riddles?

I belonged to Blackbeard.
What am I?

A large empty rectangular box for the answer.

I was washed up on a beach.
What am I?

A large empty rectangular box for the answer.

You can spend us in a shop?
What are we?

A large empty rectangular box for the answer.

I fell out of pebbles.
What am I?

A large empty rectangular box for the answer.

I am pearly pink.
What am I?

A large empty rectangular box for the answer.

There are eight of us
and you can eat us.
What are we?

A large empty rectangular box for the answer.
