

Our Learning Keys

Non-Fiction Bugs Usbourne readers

Reading Skills

Year 1
Autumn 2

Learning objectives

- Recap the differences between fiction + non-fiction
- How captions are used
- Sequence key events
- Understand the purpose of a heading
- Sequence the key events
- Share thoughts and opinions about the text
- Understand the role of a glossary
- Make a prediction based on what's been read so far
- Understand the role of an index

Blurb and Main Themes

There are thousands and thousands of different bugs in the world. Find out all kinds of creepy crawly things about them in this fascinating book. Bugs is part of an exciting series of books to read on their own. The easy-to-read text has been specially written with the help of a reading expert.

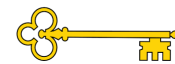

Links

- Science
- PSHE
- Literacy
- Geography

Vocabulary

- Non- Fiction
- Glossary
- Index
- Exoskeleton
- Egg sac
- Prey
- Camouflage
- Larvae
- Wing cases
- Pupa

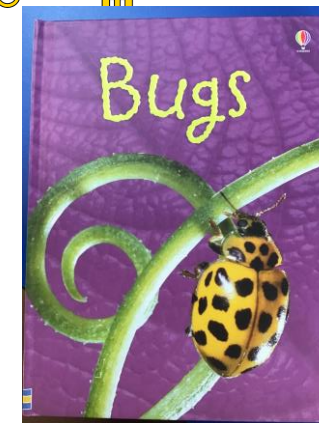

Reading Skills

- V – Vocabulary
- I - Inference
- P – Prediction
- E - Explain
- R – Retrieval
- S - Sequence

Images

Previously

The Wind
Christina Rossetti

Now

Bugs
Usbourne readers

Next

Shark Island
Angie Sage

Doors this will open...

- Author
- Illustrator
- Publisher
- Entomologist

