

Our Learning Keys

Relationships; Respecting Ourselves and Others

PSHE

Year 1

Autumn 3 of 3

Questions

- What can kind and unkind behaviour mean in and outside of school?
- How can kind and unkind behaviour make people feel?
- What does respect mean?
- Why do we have school rules and class agreements?
- Why is it important to be polite to others? Why does being polite look like?
- How do we share and take turns?

Images

Links

- Golden Rules at school.
- RE-religions showing respect.

Vocabulary

Behaviour

Kind

Unkind

Respect

Rules

Rights

Responsibilities

Politeness

Manners

Consequences

Feelings

Negative

Positive

Lasting

Impolite

Facts

- Unkind behaviour can have lots of negative effects on people.
- Kind behaviour can make people feel many positive emotions.
- Our behaviour towards others can have a lasting effect.
- It is important to be respectful of other people, property and our surroundings.
- You have the right to be treated respectfully and you have the responsibility to do the same for others.
- We have school and class rules for important reasons.
- Being polite (or impolite) to other people can change how they see us as a person.

Doors this will open...

Previously... Relationships: Families and Friendships
& Safe Relationships

Relationships: Respecting Ourselves and Others.

Next... Living in the Wider World
Belonging to a Community