

Our Learning Keys

Relationships; Respecting Ourselves and Others

Questions

- How do we recognise respectful behaviours?
- How do we model respectful behaviours in different situations e.g. at home, at school, in public, online etc.
- How are we positively affected by self-respect and why is it so important to be treated respectfully by others?
- What does it mean to be polite and be treated politely?
- How do people from other countries or different cultures show respect and courtesy to others?

Images

Links

- RE showing religious respect

'Manners cost nothing'

Vocabulary

Courtesy

Respectful

Courteous

Politeness

Culture

Impolite

Wider society

Situations

Self-respect

'Manners maketh man'

Facts

- Many people believe that how polite you are shows the most about your character.
- Being polite can give others an excellent first impression of you.
- Some things which we may see as rude in our culture are a show of respect in other cultures and vice-versa. It is important to know about this when travelling abroad.
- It is very important that we show ourselves self-respect and look after our own well-being.

Doors this will open...

Previously...

Relationships: Safe Relationships

Relationships:

Respecting Ourselves and

Next...

Living in the Wider World: Belonging to a Community